CAHPS Hospice

Proposed Rule

The CAHPS Hospice Survey Proposed Rule was published and contains proposals for important updates to the survey beginning with January 2025 decedents, including:

- → Changes to some survey questions a comparison of the current and proposed survey measures can be found in Table 14, starting on page 79 of the Proposed Rule
- → Extending the data collection period from 42 to 49 days
- Adding a web-mail mode that includes a web survey with mail follow-up to non-respondents
- → Adding a prenotification letter
- Telephone-only is currently the reference mode for scoring adjustments. It is proposed to change the reference mode to mail-only

The Proposed Rule is available on the Federal Register here. It is open for public comment until May 28, 2024. For additional information, please reference the CMS Fact Sheet.

PCF PECS

Vendor Authorization

The PCF PECS vendor authorization window is open for practice sites until June 14, 2024. A practice only needs to complete the authorization process if they are participating for the first time in PY 2024 or if they are switching vendors. Practices participating with the same vendor as PY 2023 do not need to update their authorization. Vendor authorization should be completed only after a practice has entered a contract with an approved survey vendor and executed a BAA.

For additional information, please refer to the links under "For Practices" on the PCF PECS website. If you have questions, please reach out to PCF Support at PCF@telligen.com or 888-517-7753.

CAHPS for MIPS

Registration Open Until July 1

The deadline for groups, virtual groups, and APM Entities (excluding MSSP ACOs) to register for the CAHPS for MIPS Survey for the 2024 performance year is July 1, 2024. Registration can be completed through the QPP website. For additional information, please visit the QPP How to Register for the CAHPS for MIPS Survey page here.

Please note MSSP ACOs are automatically registered to participate in the CAHPS for MIPS Survey and do not need to complete this process.
